

Reporting Issuers

Default

When a reporting issuer is noted in default, standardized codes (a number and, if applicable a letter, described in the legend below) will be appear in the column 'Nature of Default'.

Every effort is made to ensure the accuracy of this list. A reporting issuer that does not appear on this list or that has inappropriately been noted in default should contact the Alberta Securities Commission (ASC) promptly.

A reporting issuer's management or insiders may be subject to a Management Cease Trade Order, but that order will NOT be shown on the list.

Cease Trade Order

If a reporting issuer is subject to a cease trade order issued by the ASC or the Executive Director under section 33.1 of the Securities Act (Alberta) (Act) or by the ASC under section 198(1) or (2) of the Act, the existence of that order will be disclosed beside the name of the reporting issuer as "ASC CTO".

If a reporting issuer is subject to a cease trade order issued by another securities regulatory authority in Canada that applies in Alberta as a result of section 198.1 of the Act, and prohibits all trading of the securities of that issuer, the existence of that order will be disclosed beside the name of the reporting issuer as "Reciprocal CTO".

Securities that are subject to an ASC CTO or a Reciprocal CTO cannot be traded in Alberta.

To determine if a person or company is the subject of a management cease trade order issued by the ASC, please refer to the "Proceedings, Decisions & Orders – Issuers" section on the ASC website (at www.asc.ca).

Additional information may be obtained by:

- reviewing the filings made by the reporting issuer on SEDAR+ (at www.sedarplus.ca);
- contacting the reporting issuer directly;
- reviewing the Commission website; or
